

2019 AASP Northeast Regional Conference Final Report

To Whom it May Concern:

The 2019 AASP Northeast Regional Conference took place at Springfield College on Friday, March 1st and Saturday, March 2nd. This report provides some important information regarding the conference.

Number of Attendees: 81

Undergraduate Students: 10

Graduate Students: 48

Professional: 18

Springfield College Alumni: 5

Number of Schools Represented: 12

The conference program included:

- 3 Keynote Presentations
 - Dr. Karen Cogan – At the Olympics, Even the Sport Psychologist Must be On
 - Dr. Becky Clark – The Power of Sport and Inclusion: Reflections of a Deaf Consultant and Diplomat
 - Dr. Kensa Gunter – The A.I.R. We Breathe: Ethics and Cultural Competence in Sport Psychology
- 1 Roundtable (e.g., one student)
- 1 Panel Discussion (two students and three professionals participated)
- 2 Lecture Sessions (e.g., two student and one professional)
- 2 Paper Sessions (e.g. five students)
- 3 Workshops (e.g., two student and one professional)
- The conference also included an attendee dinner, breakfast, lunch, snacks, and a closing raffle.

According to a post-conference survey that was given to attendees, things that were most enjoyed at the conference included:

- The keynote speakers and great presentations
- Networking
- Social gathering Friday night
- Smaller number of attendees so there were more opportunities for personal interactions
- Conference was well-organized and all details were accounted for

The conference grant of $500 was used to partially cover the following expenses:

Keynote Hotel Rooms $662.04

On behalf of the conference planning committee, we want to thank you for providing us with the funding which made it possible to hold this successful and valuable conference.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Emily Tyler & Gabrielle Salvatore, Conference Planning Co-Chairs